

HVAC Installer Technician

HVAC Installer with Sheet Metal Experience

Sheet metal experience is required.

Independent and self-starting on a wide range of heating and air conditioning service and installation issues, needs and problems

Mechanical aptitude is most

Exceptional customer service skills, ability to create positive experiences with customers in a wide range of customer interactions

Excellent communication skills

Team-inspired company attitude

Emotional intelligence

Clean MVR is required

Detail oriented and effective communication skillset

Great organizational skills

The right candidate will be self-motivated, driven and company-oriented

Maintain clean and orderly work vehicle

Must be able to pass a drug test, physical screening and background check

Ability to crawl, climb, squat, and stand for long periods

Fine hand motor skills, ability to lift 10-50 pounds frequently, 100 pounds occasionally

Effective use of mobile devices including cell phones, tablets, and credit card payment devices

Own and effectively use basic HVAC service tool set

Promote Company and Department goals, operating procedures, and positive culture

Compensation: Pays $17 - $35 per hour depends on the skills you are bringing to the table.

Employment type: employee's choice